FOREWORD

2,264 students occupy the red brick building of West High School. But it is much more than the bricks in the construction, the desks in the classrooms, or even the physical presence of the students that make up West. The true elements of West are the attitudes, goals, and achievements of the students: the exuberant leap of a cheerleader, the pile of college catalogues, the exhilaration of a final curtain call—the atmosphere of a school reflected in the activities of its students.

Dave,
Lots of luck

Be good and have

New Administration

Principal Douglas S. Ritchie

The school year 1964-1965 marked the beginning of a number of important changes at West. The changes were carried out by West's new principal, Mr. Douglas Ritchie, who came to West after fourteen years in Port Washington, Wisconsin. With the help of assistant principals Orris Boettcher and Donald Krider, Mr. Ritchie incorporated many changes into the school-day: The I.B.M. grading system, the lengthened lunch and class periods, and more time between classes. "The main philosophy underlying the changes," Mr. Ritchie said, "is to encourage more independence on the part of the student." An example of the attempt to give more independence to the students this year was seen in the issuing of honor passes.

Mr. Boettcher, who came to West after serving as principal in Dodgeville, was in charge of attendance and disciplinary measures. Mr. Krider's main administrative duty was in the organization of instructional services.

Provides New Leadership

Many new changes have been made this year in school office procedure. Mrs. Arleen Conner, Mrs. Jane Mitchell, Mrs. Irene Kimball and Mrs. Bernice Engen see to it that the office functions run smoothly at all times.

Mrs. Engen, Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Mitchell, and Mrs. Conner.

Mrs. Piper, Miss Perego and (top) Mrs. Stack, Mr. Barnes, and Mr. Speerschneider.

The important job of helping students choose programs is done by the guidance department at West. The department consists of Mrs. Kathryn Piper, Mrs. Myrtle Stack, Miss Betty Perego, Mr. Leo Barnes and Mr. James Speerschneider. Miss Perego serves as the advisor of scholarship committee, and Mr. Barnes heads AFS committee and is the advisor to Friends of Foreign Students. Mr. Speerschneider serves on the scholarship committee. Mrs. Piper is the guidance secretary.

Success and top in the first year - Betty Perego

Students find books and research materials under the assistance of Mrs. Josephine Rentz and Mrs. Carolyn Cain, school librarians. Mrs. Cain and Mrs. Rentz also train and work with student library workers to keep the library running efficiently.

Mrs. Rentz and Mrs. Cain

We Learn by Reading,

I hate this awful picture - But I certainly enjoyed you in class - kept this class going - Best luck

Mrs. Foster, Mr. Ehlert, and Mrs. Erickson.

By studying American and English literature, we more easily understand the minds of people, past and present. Mrs. Ruth Mikkelsen teaches junior and senior English classes and is advisor to the Folksinging Club. Mrs. Orchard instructs eleventh graders.

Mrs. Rockett, Mr. Reiss, and Mrs. Rhodes.

Mrs. Mikkelson and Mrs. Orchard.

Under the direction of Mr. John Reiss, Mrs. Helen Rockett, and Mrs. Julia Rhodes, senior English teachers, we develop appreciation and understanding of the classics. Mrs. Rhodes also serves as an advisor for Creative Writing Club and Patterns in Print. Mr. Reiss coaches Four-Lakes football.

Analyzing, and Writing

Best wishes always, David

In the classes of Miss Katherine Sipfle, Miss Mary Stahmer, Mrs. Helen Stanley, and Miss Twila Rude, we learn the finer points of English grammar and the techniques for expository writing. Miss Stahmer is the advisor for Red Cross Club while Mrs. Stanley and Miss Rude both advise Patterns in Print.

Miss Rude, Miss Sipfle, Miss Stahmer, and Mrs. Stanley.

Miss Kanable, Miss Knutson, and Mrs. Dowling.

English can be fun in the classes of Mrs. Elizabeth Dowling, Miss Marian Kanable, and Miss Kay Knutson. We are kept busy learning English grammar and composing themes. Mrs. Dowling teaches junior and senior English. Miss Kanable teaches sophomore English, French I, and also advises Patterns in Print, WSC, and French Club. Miss Knutson instructs sophomore and junior English classes.

My best wishes to you all

Mrs. Grossman, Mr. Campbell, and Miss Muckenhirn.

Students of Miss Mary Muckenhirn and Mr. Michael Campbell, sophomore English teachers, read short stories and works such as A Tale of Two Cities and Julius Caesar. Miss Muckenhirn is chairman of the English department. Senior English students of Mrs. Ruth Grossman are taught the elements of good writing and good literature. Mrs. Grossman is also a member of the scholarship committee.

My very best wishes Dave. You were a fine person to have when I was student-teaching - always interested in something! I'll be glad to see you next year and then have a good few years in school. Miss Baker

Vocal Talents Developed in Speech

Teaching how to vocally express ideas is the main concern of the members of our speech department. Mrs. Ruth McCarty, along with her senior speech classes, also serves on auditorium committee and advises National Thespians. Mrs. Ellyn Bryan is a new speech teacher. Mr. Thomas Tews, in addition to teaching speech, is also the advisor to Class Night, and stage crew. Mr. Tews directs both the Fall and Spring plays and also serves on auditorium committee.

Mr. Bryan, Mr. Tews, and Mrs. McCarty

Mr. Farrand, Mr. Parker, and Mr. Crook

The students of Economics and Sociology classes study the basic structure of our society and the philosophies of capitalism, communism, and socialism. Mr. Charles Farrand and Mr. David Parker teach both Economics and Sociology classes. Mr. Richard Crook teaches Sociology and American history. Mr. Parker coaches the debate and forensics clubs and has charge of the Herefurth speech contest. Mr. Crook is advisor to Student Forum.

Mr. Lee takes a special interest in studying slides of protozoans.

The Past Shapes the Future

The struggles for freedom which our forefathers endured are the concern of students in the American and world history classes of Miss Kathryn Kohler, Mr. Raymond Quant, and Mr. Burton Hable. All three teachers keep busy with other activities at West besides their teaching. Miss Kohler is the advisor to the junior class, National Honor Society, and WSC. Mr. Quant is chairman of both the Social Studies department and auditorium ticket sales. He is also the advisor to International Club. Mr. Hable advises the senior class and is the head coach for varsity football and hockey.

Mr. Quant, Miss Kohler, and Mr. Hable

Past events are relived in world and American history discussions. Four members of our history department are Mr. Walter Wartolec, Mr. Michael DiBiase, Mr. James Lackore and Mr. Russell Paugh. Mr. Paugh coaches the baseball team, Mr. Lackore serves as advisor to Student Senate, and Mr. Wartolec is one of the advisors to High-Times.

*Best Wishes
Mr. DiBiase*

Past events and how they will affect the future are studied in the history classes of Mr. Michael Brockmeyer, Miss Justine Dakin, Mr. Clark Byam, and Mr. Roger Brumm. Mr. Brockmeyer is an assistant coach to the varsity football team and head coach of the wrestling team. Mr. Byam, in addition to teaching history, is also the golf team coach. Miss Dakin, who teaches sophomores and juniors, advises ski club.

The Sciences Challenge

The system of mathematics becomes more understandable to us through the teachings of Miss Cassie Raasoch, Mr. Neil Smith, and Mr. Orval Yaeger. Miss Raasoch teaches geometry; Mr. Yaeger teaches math 12 and algebra. Mr. Yaeger is also advisor to Math Club and a member of the Statistical Committee.

Mr. Yaeger, Mr. Smith, and Miss Raasoch.

Miss Matteson, Miss Beckerleg, and Mr. McCloskey.

Understanding basic concepts and using logical reasoning are important in the science of mathematics. We learn these concepts with help from Miss Fern Beckerleg, Mr. Donald McCloskey, and Miss Janet Matteson. Miss Matteson also teaches physical science, and Mr. McCloskey served as Math Club advisor, (before taking a two year leave of absence to Nigeria).

The world of numbers, proofs, and theorems presents a real and exciting challenge to the students of Mr. Donald Loker, Miss Janet Herzfeldt, and Mr. Eugene Leverentz. All three teach geometry. Mr. Loker and Miss Herzfeldt add algebra and trigonometry to their schedule. Mr. Leverentz teaches calculus and coaches our tennis team.

Miss Herzfeldt, Mr. Leverentz, and Mr. Loker.

the Search for Knowledge

Miss Koch, Miss Peck, Mr. Bicket, and Mrs. Dillon.

The ever-increasing importance of mathematics in our lives becomes apparent in the classes of Mrs. Beverly Dillon, Miss Delores Peck, Miss Ann Koch, and Mr. James Bicket. We are taught geometry, algebra, and trigonometry. Miss Koch is the new teacher replacing Mr. McCloskey. Besides being an assistant football coach, Mr. Bicket also coaches the curling team.

Anything can be expected when you walk into the biology classes of Mr. Joseph Antonie and Mr. LeRoy Lee. Both teach advanced biology courses with such topics of study as botany, zoology, and anatomy. Mr. Lee and Mr. Antonie are co-advisors for Biology Club. Mr. Antonie, who is chairman of the Science department also serves as chairman for the Honor Gordon Committee.

Mr. Antonie and Mr. Lee.

Mr. Moore, the new Chemistry teacher, shows Cindy Hintz, left, and Kris Thomas some mysterious compounds.

Knowledge Through

Students learn the laws and theories of Physics under the instruction of Mr. Gerald Buck and Mr. David Braunschweig. Mr. Buck also teaches classes in chemistry and is the advisor to movie crew.

Gerald Buck

Mr. Buck and Mr. Braunschweig

Mr. Miller and Mr. Moore

Atoms and molecules are the basis of study in the chemistry classes of Mr. Bruce Miller and Mr. Richard Moore, a new chemistry teacher. Their students learn to balance equations, to solve problems, and most important to work properly in the laboratory.

Mr. Wesenberg and Mr. Holt

The structure of the earth and weather patterns are some of the studies of the earth science classes of Mr. Douglas Holt. Basic science and physical science are taught by Mr. Dale Wesenberg. Mr. Holt also coaches Four-Lakes football.

Observation and Analysis

Miss Anderson, Miss Schweizer, Mrs. Moravcevic, and (top) Mrs. Jordan.

German stories and other German literature is studied by the students in the German classes of Mrs. Elsa Oliver and Miss Donna Ellefson. Mrs. Oliver teaches one first year German class, and Miss Ellefson instructs first, second, third and fourth year students.

Mrs. Oliver and Miss Ellefson

Latin translation and grammar are emphasized in the Latin classes of Mr. Patrick Frawley and Miss Eleanor Wilson. Mr. Frawley teaches second and third year Latin, and Miss Wilson has first, second and fourth year classes. Miss Wilson is also in charge of the honor roll.

Mr. Frawley and Miss Wilson

Learning Through Language

Mr. Mason, Mrs. Garner, Mr. Otto, and Mrs. Hammond.

Besides teaching us to speak the Spanish language, Mrs. Lucia Garner, Mrs. Karen Hammond, Mr. Joseph Mason, and Mr. Frank Otto provide us with a special insight into the culture, history, and modern-day problems of the many Spanish speaking people. All the Spanish teachers help with Spanish Club with Mrs. Garner as the main advisor. Mr. Otto is in charge of the Spanish newspaper and Mr. Mason is an intern teacher for the first semester.

Mrs. Schneider

Something new in the language department at West, is the Russian teacher, Mrs. Joyce Schneider. Mrs. Schneider teaches basic Russian along with Russian culture, to sophomores and juniors.

W. Benson

Miss Evelyn Baumann and Mr. Wallace Benson teach the advanced concepts of art. Mr. Benson advises Art Angle and is also the faculty advisor for social committee. Both Miss Baumann and Mr. Benson obtained their degrees from the University of Wisconsin.

Mr. Benson, and Miss Baumann.

Talents Directed by Mechanical Arts

Mr. Orville Evans, Mr. Wallace Bondhus and Mr. Frances Fallon are the members of the industrial arts department. Department head, Mr. Evans teaches graphic arts, and woodworking. Mr. Evans is also the Cross-Country coach. Mr. Bondhus instructs classes in power mechanics, machines and metals. Mr. Fallon specializes in drafting.

Mr. Bondhus, Mr. Fallon and Mr. Evans

Mr. Fallon helps Jim Miles, a senior, on a drafting project.

Miss Emma Niendorf the home economics teacher, directs senior high girls in advanced homemaking methods. Miss Niendorf is also an advisor to Future Home-Makers of America. Miss Mary Crain is responsible for the hot lunch program in the cafeteria.

Miss Crain and Miss Niendorf

Practical Skills Are Developed

Miss Norton, Miss Lange, and Mrs. Sarver

Typing and shorthand are valuable skills for future college students as well as those who will enter the business world. Business education classes are taught by Miss Viola Norton, Miss Dorothy Lange, and Mrs. Eleanor Sarver. Other classes in this department include accounting and office practice. Miss Lange also advises paper shop. Miss Norton is the chairman of the Business Education department and is also an advisor to Business Club.

Typing, Business English, Business math and accounting are some of the courses taught by Miss Mareta Schmidley, Mr. Bruce Straw, and Mrs. Helen Johnson. Mr. Straw is in charge of the textbook department and the school accounts.

Mrs. Johnson, Miss Schmidley, and Mr. Straw

Mrs. Dowling helps some of her senior English students in a panel discussion.

Music Marks Important Occasions

Mr. Stanke

Mr. Ernest Stanke, the orchestra director, has two major programs each year, the winter and spring concerts. He also directs the wind ensemble, and instructs junior high students.

Mr. Rafoth

The many bands at West are led by Mr. John Rafoth. Much of the enthusiasm at the football and basketball games comes from the Pep Band, led by Mr. Rafoth. He also directs the Symphonic, Marching, and Concert bands. Throughout the year several programs involving the bands are also presented.

Miss Huxtable, the A Cappella choir director, is kept busy with many other activities. She directs Boys' Double Quartet, Girl's Ensemble, and Girl's Chorus. She also teaches the chorus classes. It is her responsibility to organize and plan the vocal arrangements for the Christmas, winter, and spring programs.

Sportsmanship Emphasized in

Mr. Borland and Mr. Jones

The importance and responsibility of a driver's license is emphasized in the driver's education classes of Mr. Willis Jones. Mr. Jones is also the head coach of the track squad and advisor to W-Club. Mr. Glenn Borland instructs junior health classes and is also an assistant coach for varsity football.

In the gym classes of Mr. James Stevens and Mr. Thomas Hargraves, doing exercises and learning good sportsmanship play an important part. Mr. Stevens coaches West's varsity basketball squad as well as instructing several gym classes. Mr. Hargraves teaches swimming and also coaches the swimming team.

Mr. Hargraves and Mr. Stevens

Faculty members chat with each other at the faculty tea.

Physical Education Classes

Mrs. Stettler and Miss Temple

The girl's gym classes are taught by Mrs. Mary Stettler and Miss Ina Temple. Field hockey, tumbling, swimming, and softball are some of the activities that they instruct. Mrs. Stettler is the advisor to Pep Club and along with Miss Temple advises Catalina Club and girls' intramural sports. Miss Temple is also advisor to the cheerleading squad.

Mrs. Stettler advises Pep Club members Margy Geissler, Sue Vilhauer, and Linda Wirth.

Providing the opportunity to work together and form lasting friendships—
“ . . . To become capable of genuine comradeship, the foundation must be laid in youth.”

Linking Students

Student Senate effectively kept its responsibilities both to the administration and the student body. Bob Eccles as president worked with the administration, homeroom representatives, and the other Senate officers—vice-president Susie Kaeser, treasurer Russ Nelson and secretary Sue Vilhauer in realizing Senate's goals. These goals included: aiding the students in maintaining high standards at West, serving as a medium between the faculty and the student body and helping the administration direct the activities in the best interests of all students.

Much of the work of Senate was carried out in committees. Projects Committee, headed by Bill Moore, organized all special projects such as the high school bowl auds, West Cal, and Regent Sweep. Many elections were held during the year and those elections and the campaigns which preceeded them, plus the tallying of the votes afterwards were the responsibility of Elections Committee, led by John Sims and Linda Taplick. Publicity, under Jean La Valley, made sure that all of the special Senate projects and school activities were publicized through posters and announcements. Promotion of school spirit, Orientation Day, the Teacher's Tea, and greeting visiting athletic teams were just a few of the duties of Reception Committee, supervised by Mary Ranney. The homeroom honor plaque and other awards given out by Student Senate were the responsibilities of Dave Kuntz and Awards Committee. Bruce Johnson headed Constitution Committee and served as the Senate parliamentarian. Senate was faced with many important issues this year—the closed lunch hour, re-scheduling of classes to provide an extra minute between them, and the resolution to form a ski team.

The Scene

Stage manager, Jim Fluck, supervises backstage.

Stage Crew's biggest tasks were the fall and spring plays, each presented for two nights in November and March, respectively. For many weeks before the plays, stage crew members worked late hours to prepare for the productions. Their reward was two fine performances controlled completely by themselves.

Speech class plays, the Christmas program, Pep Club skits, Class Night, and Band, Orchestra, and Choir auds were also the responsibility of Stage Crew. The sound crew ran the audio aids for P.T.A., Student Forum, basketball games, and dances.

The responsibility of having everything run smoothly rested on Jim Fluck, stage manager. He was second only to Mr. Tews, Stage Crew advisor, in giving orders backstage. In charge of each crew were crew heads elected by members of the individual crews for terms of one semester.

Mr. Gerald Buck directed the Movie Crew this year. The members used their study halls to run the projectors for films in classes and at meetings.

OFFICE WORKERS

The Office Workers helped the regular office staff by answering the phone, sorting mail, and running errands. This freed the hired workers for more important tasks and gave the girls a chance to earn work credit.

LIBRARY WORKERS

During their study halls, some dedicated students reported to the library to assist the librarians with some of their work. The Library Workers shelved books, made bulletin boards, and tried to end the confusion of little green pass slips.

USHERS CLUB

The Ushers Club assisted visitors at all West functions open to the public. These included sports events, plays, and concerts.

Clubs Induce Enthusiasm

Pep Club's familiar cry of "Go you mighty Regents" resounds throughout the halls of West. Traditionally, Pep Club has been known for its continuous flow of enthusiasm. Pep pins, a maze and blue card section, and clever Pep Club skits are all methods used to rouse school spirit. Pep Club has been consistently effective in rallying all Regent rooters behind their team.

W.S.C. continued its policy of aiding fellow students and fellow citizens. The Big Sister program is an example of how W.S.C. members helped new girls get acquainted with West and its students. W.S.C. manned the candy shop and paper shop, as well as the lost and found. They also initiated a new paperback shop.

W.S.C. was responsible for the bright hall decorations during the holidays. One of W.S.C.'s largest projects was helping Roundy's Fun Fund by stuffing envelopes.

Membership in W. Club is secured by winning a letter in any of the following sports: football, basketball, baseball, cross-country, track, wrestling, and swimming. A new innovation at many West High functions this year was the popcorn machine, which was sponsored by W Club. This year's W Club takes pride in beginning the R.O. Christofferson Scholarship Fund.

Another Year Recorded by

Westward Ho editors and staff members rushed to complete deadlines as usual this year. Mr. Ehlert, advisor, and Freya Weinstein, editor in chief, supervised work on the publication. Cover design and thematic introduction were Freya's special work. Ellen Zerwick was responsible for the clubs section which included all 60 clubs and organizations and 22 junior and sophomore homerooms. Feature editor Molly Shannon was in charge of dances and special activities. Cindy Hintz had an important part of Westward Ho—that of the seniors. This job has even larger this year with 760 seniors—a record number. The sports events at West were covered by sports editor, Dave Albright. Maureen Rooney, faculty editor, saw to it that our teachers were fully presented. The index was handled by Joni Bladl, assistant editor.

The business staffs make up the other half of the Westward Ho task force. Ron Peterson, business editor, and his staff collected payments for and distributed the annuals. Advertising staff, headed by editor Tim Johnson, sold ad space to help finance the annual.

Editors and members of their staffs toiled for weeks and months to produce Westward Ho! 1965. Shown are Ron Peterson, Cindy Hintz, Maureen Rooney, Fran Harder, Molly Shannon, Edie Meissner, and Ellen Zerwick.

High-Times was different this year, perhaps it was due to the new administration, but more likely it was due to the division of staff members. At West the twice-monthly editions of the newspaper had dual purposes. First, to bring the student body up-to-date concerning all student activities. Secondly, the paper provided ample opportunity for students to express themselves through the addition of an entire page for editorial comment.

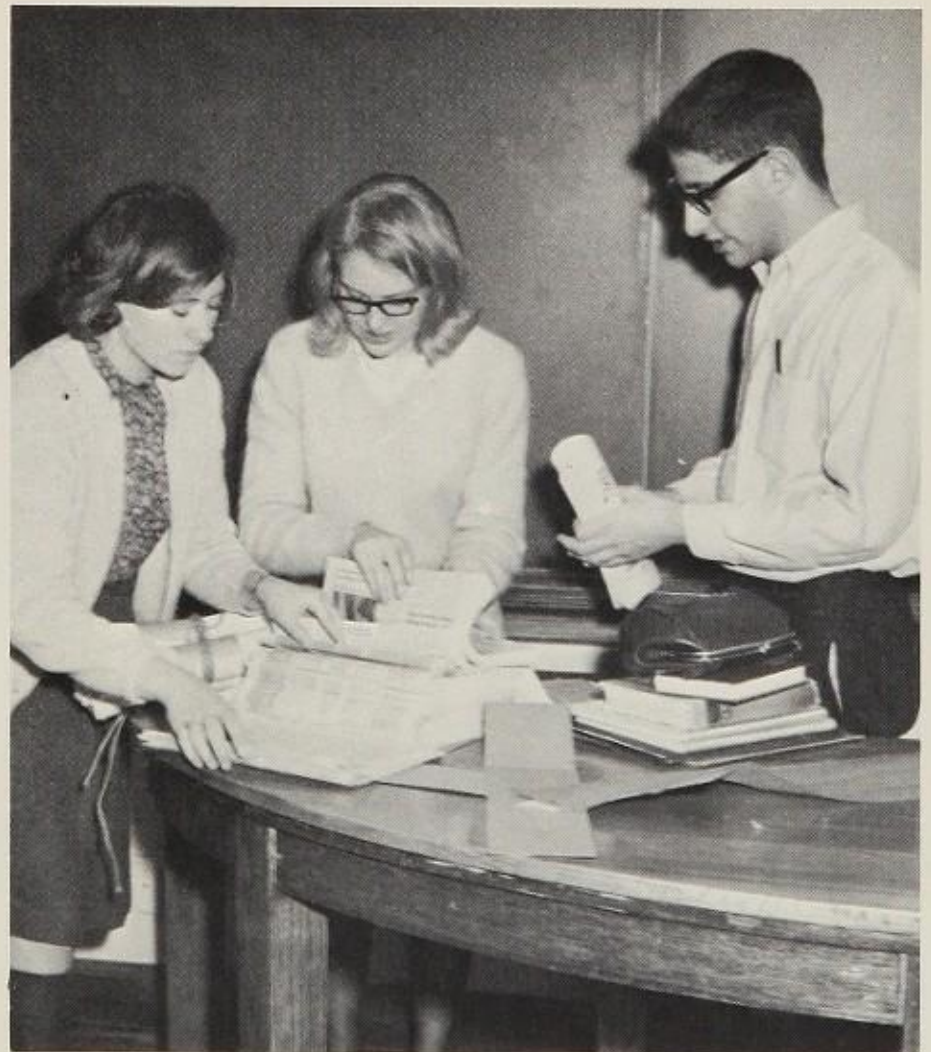

Hours of toil went into each edition of the West High-Times. High-Times reporters were on the scene of every event. Obviously, they accepted their challenges, and received satisfaction upon the completion of each paper.

Each paper included feature articles which ranged from such things as new teachers to twirp twirl. Standard articles in every High-Times were The Editorial Comment, Senior Sketches and sports events. There was something for everyone, and thus the many hours of hard work were worthwhile.

Toiling week after week to get the paper out were High-Times Editors: SEATED—Sue Porter, Margie Giesler, Joanne Backer, Liz Beyler, Sara Loyster. STANDING are: John Sims, Becky Lampman, John Barsness, and John Wimberly.

From student to teacher to editors to print was the path of various pieces of literature this year as the Patterns in Print staff met the Spring deadline. The annual publication, supervised by editor in chief Alison Brooks and Miss Kanable of the faculty, tried to find the literary genius in the student body and put it into print. Functioning under the supervisors were various committees to publicize the magazine.

"A central control of nuclear arms" was the topic for this year's Debate Team. Under the direction of Mr. Parker, the team attended various tournaments and matches throughout the state, fighting for, then against the question at hand. It proved to be a very successful year as the team qualified for the State Debate Tournament and finished fourth.

A, B, and C Debate team members shown above are T. Christensen, J. Whitman, D. Gaebler, advisor Mr. Parker, P. Brynson, M. Camerini, J. Pavlat, J. Zimbeck, M. Harris, M. Barbash, S. Sprecher, and R. Pritchard.

Members are well deserving of these honors as they have undoubtedly devoted more than 120 hours to any single production.

High School Bowl, created to stimulate intellectual competition between local high schools, is one of West High's winning teams. Boys' Double Quartet

Song is the music of the soul, but "must it be at 7:30 in the morning?" asked Choir members. With eyes mostly closed and mouths open, Choir rehearsed its wide variety of numbers not only at 7:30 AM but during third hour three days a week. Melodies sung by these one hundred thirteen voices directed by Marion G. Huxtable, filtered through the halls of the school. The Choir was busy as it performed four major concerts this year including the memorable Christmas Concert—highlighted by the processional, a Pop Concert, the Spring Concert, and for graduation.

Girls Ensemble

Because of an abundance of talent at West this year, Girls Ensemble has increased its size from twelve to fifteen. This year's Ensemble is also noted for its number of girls who were able to be in the Ensemble without being in Choir. A special compliment to them all is their ability to blend their fifteen voices to create an unbroken sound that reaches not only the ears, but the soul as well.

Boys Double Quartet:

The Choir programs often included its eight members, male vocal group, who enhanced the programs with a variety of numbers. With a swish of the new blue choir robes, they assembled before the audience with melodies such as "This Ole Hammer," "I Want A Girl," and "Misty."

A Surge of Joy

Color Guard

This year Color Guard was made up of: D. Stone, B. Waterbury, C. LeBosquet, M. McKenna, T. McEachern, R. Grady, B. Cummings, R. Schultz, J. Hoff, J. Williams.

Marching Band, directed by Mr. John Rafoth, was an all-male organization for the first time this year. One hundred and ten musicians from the three concert bands participated. It consisted mainly of brass players, thus the result was a bigger, fuller sound. With Dave Clarke as drum major, the unit performed many intricate and interesting formations on the football field. Daily rehearsals at 7:30 A.M. regardless of the weather brought about a precision military unit rather than just an average marching band. Other than the school songs, the band mastered such numbers as "How the West was Won", "32nd Division March", "With Bells On" and "Conquest."

Attired in maize and blue letter sweaters, Pep Band helped spark the basketball team to victory. Trumpet fan-fares played on alternate weeks by Bob Harloff and Denny Ruskin were an essential part of every game. A variety of half-time performances were given and the group also played at pep auds.

ORCHESTRA

Orchestra, directed by Mr. Ernest Stanke, made its first public appearance of the year at the Wisconsin Music Educators Conference in the fall. Featured numbers were: Strauss' "Tales From Vienna Woods," and the "Paul Bunyon Suite" by Bergsma, and the Fourth Movement of the "New World Symphony" by Duorak. These three numbers were also performed at the Winter Concert, January 31. Orchestra spent much of the second semester preparing music for the Spring concert.

Winter and Spring

WIND ENSEMBLE

Wind Ensemble, a group formed just last year, is composed of West's best wind musicians. It first performed at the Winter Concert January 24. "Concerto Grosso" by Handel featured solos by Garry Owens on the clarinet and Sue Nelson and Connie Fleischer on flutes. Other numbers included: Williams' "The Sinfonians", a symphonic march, Mendelssohn's "Fingal's Cave Overture", and Mennin's "Canzona." Wind Ensemble also performed at a Spring Pops Concert. Assisting Dave Clarke as president of the Wind Ensemble were: Denny Ruskin, vice-president; Sue Nelson, secretary; Gary Owens, treasurer; and Marcia Gehring, librarian.

Limitless Music

Symphonic Band, ninety-six musicians strong, toiled long hours to perfect their music for the Spring and Winter Concerts. Mr. Rafoth reorganized the rehearsals, meeting with the full band only once a week, besides the 7:30 A.M. rehearsal on Fridays. Woodwinds met Tuesdays and Thursdays while the brass and percussion sections practiced Wednesdays and Fridays.

Among the numbers performed this year were "The March of the Olympians", "Trumpets in Stereo" by James Christensen of the U.W. Marching Band, "Prade" from Viva Mexico! and "Folk Legend".

Concert Band, which is a training band, performs in the Winter and Spring Concerts. Learning about music was its principle emphasis.

World of Many Cultures

An international potluck dinner was always a big event for International Club, an organization which was concerned with the customs of other lands. Members brought foreign dishes and also sang folk songs and performed folk dances. Such activities helped teach members about societies different than our own.

Folk Singing Club was organized last fall for the first time. The group sang mainly American folk songs, with various members accompanying on their guitars. Besides such familiar titles as "If I Had A Hammer" and "Blowin' In the Wind", new songs were introduced to the group.

Friends of Foreign Students replaced the Globetrotters group of last year. Members were picked by Mr. Barnes of the guidance department and each was assigned to a foreign student to make him or her become better acquainted with the busy world of West. Another objective was to have West students learn more about the countries from which the foreign students came.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB OFFICERS

President, Marsha Swenson, is assisted by Molly Conley, Pete Opee, and Katy Doyle, the other officers, in planning the International Club meetings.

FRENCH CLUB

French Club divided into four groups: Culture Committee, Music Committee, Reading Committee, and a tape group that worked on tape recordings in the language lab. The Club met in a general meeting twice a month while each committee met once a month. French Club activities included a picnic at the beginning of the year, a Christmas party, a Mardi Gras held in February, and a picnic closing the year. French Club members benefited greatly from speakers from the University and the French table open every Friday during lunch period.

In charge of special groups of French Club were; FRONT ROW: L. Granger, K. Rudolph, M. Shannon, F. Tempkin. ROW 2: M. Stalman, M. Conley, K. Tilly, B. Malsin.

International Flavor Through Clubs

SPANISH CLUB

Spanish Club was organized into four workable committees, the culture or "cultura" committee, the food or "comida" committee, the music or "musica" committee, and the literature or "literatura" committee. All groups met separately once a week to develop individual programs. A general meeting was held twice a month for the purpose of enjoying each committees programs. This year "la comida" sponsored a large Spanish dinner. All West students were welcomed along with Spanish Club Officers from other schools and officers from other West Language Clubs.

FRONT ROW: B. Olson, A. Wordlaw, T. McCormick. ROW 2: M. Conley, J. Jones, H. Goodwin, C. Higuchi, were responsible for Spanish Club programs.

GERMAN CLUB

Members of German Club had the opportunity to meet with outside speakers and listen to fellow students who had visited Germany. The group enjoyed dancing and singing at German Club parties. One very special event was the "October Fest." German Club officers were (at left): D. Snowden, S. Sprecher, H. Cosgrove, D. Kreft.

Creative Writing Club, no stranger to West, switched supervisors this year, as Mrs. Rhodes took over from Mrs. Stanley. From week to week various members read some of their "masterpieces" ranging from prose to poetry, and were then "subjected" to their fellow club members' comments on the work. If good enough, the composition was then considered for Patterns in Print.

Devised on the "spur of the moment" Philosophy Club established itself at West this year. Founded by Margaret Siefried and Marianne Morgan, the club's purpose was to devote its time to a study of some of the great philosophies of the world. This was accomplished by listening to speakers, such as Professor Weinberg of the University, and by group study and discussion.

RADIO CLUB

Looking over some of the equipment used by Radio Club are: M. Draeger; advisor Mr. Lugg; H. Vitovec; and R. Cox.

Biology Club members studied a variety of subjects this year. Gone were the divisions of specialized fields of the preceeding year, as the Club took on a more informal pose. Limnology, archeology, and conservation speakers highlighted meetings, throughout the year, with their programs, while at other times various projects, made by fellow members, were displayed and discussed.

Despite an advisor change in mid-year, this years Math Club, set up for those students whose questions reach beyond class, operated as one of West's special-interest clubs this year. Engineered and managed by its members, Math Club meetings featured discussions and, on occasions, outside speakers. Within the Math Club, the Math Correspondence group kept up its competition with other schools in its math-by-mail contests.

Red Cross Club, under the direction of Miss Stahlmer, continued its programs of good-will. Throughout the year, trips were made to hospitals to visit and entertain the patients. Along with the regular meetings, members submitted articles to the Local Red Cross Chapter for consideration in the Red Cross Newspaper.

Guided by Mr. Lugg, Radio Club meetings were more class-like than in the past. Club members studied the code system rather than the HAM operations of the previous year.

Look to the Future

Members of Future Teachers of America learned of the qualifications and responsibilities of a truly good teacher through lectures by Dean Stiles of the U.W. School of Education and Mr. Talbecke of the Peace Corps together with a panel discussion by high school and grade school teachers.

Business Club introduces its members to the many different fields of business. Many interesting speakers addressed the group including the personnel director from Oscar Meyer.

The primary goal of Art Angle this year was to acquaint its members with the wide range of occupations available in the field of art. The group heard several speakers, but the highlight of the year was a trip to Chicago where they visited museums and art collections.

Representatives from a charm school and a beauty salon taught Future Homemakers of America fashion and beauty techniques. The chief service project of the year was a Christmas Party for the elderly at Mendota State Hospital.

Meeting weekly, Student Forum covered a wide variety of subjects ranging from politics (the 1964 national and state elections) to Papa Hambone talking on teenage responsibilities.

Cheerleaders Spark Victorious

One of the most polished teams at West was the cheerleading squad. Though its performances were not judged in terms of victories or losses, its success was clearly evident in the crowd's enthusiasm which, in turn, spurred on the team's efforts. But few successes come without hard work and the eight girls on the squad practiced diligently many hours after school to achieve perfection.

The cheerleaders radiated their pep and charm at all the games and Pep Auds. In addition, the basketball season gave the squad two "extracurricular" activities. The most popular was their Regent beanie concession, while the cheerleading clinic at State Tournament time showed that the Regent cheerleaders were first in the state.

During the football season the officers were Barb Milesky, captain; and Lynn Reed, co-captain. Officers during basketball were Penny Perras, captain; and Nancy Werren, co-captain. Miss Ina Temple was the squad's advisor.

Enthusiasm in Teams and Crowd

Late in the fall, just preceding the basketball season, the varsity cheerleaders conducted cheerleading classes for interested sophomore girls. Lack of Depth Hinders Harriers

Lacking the necessary depth, the 1964 West Cross Country team was not as successful as last year's undefeated state champions. However, the team was a threat in every meet and was always within the top five finishers. Under co-captains Brad McDowell and Ken Nutter, the Regent harriers earned two first place titles, four second place titles, and one fourth place title.

The Regents opened their season with an 18-39 victory in a dual meet with East. West dominated the first, second, third, and fifth places with Bob Gordon, Ken Nutter, Ken Wilkening, and Gene Schmidt respectively. At the West Invitational, Racine Horlick High school's harriers upset the Regents 43-56. Gordon repeated as individual winner, setting a record of 10:51 over the 2.2 mile course. The West Grant Invitational at Patch Grove found West as champions with Gordon, Wilkening, and Nutter taking the first three places. Gordon led West to a second place at the Hartford Invitational and the Regent harriers then went on to capture the City Meet for the tenth consecutive year. West finished with 28 points as Gordon set a new city record of 9:25 for the 2.1 mile event. The Regents took second place in the Big Eight Meet, with Gordon again setting a new record, and captured another second place title at the Hartford WIAA Sectional. The Regents took fourth in the State Meet. Gordon broke the previous record by almost 28 seconds, with a time of 10 minutes 9.6 seconds.

The Regent "B" squad won the City Meet with Dennis Switzky as individual winner. They took first place in the dual meet with East and second in the West Invitational. West's sophomores won their City Meet with Ken Wilkening as individual winner.

Regents Compile 7-1 Season Record

West 13 Chicago Schurz 7

West's football team defeated Schurz on two yard touchdown run by Tom Leslie with three minutes left to play. The Regents also scored in the second quarter on a 53 yard pass play from Jim Kippert to Dick Pfahler. It was the Regent's fourth straight victory in a season opener.

West 21 Racine Park 0

Jim Boulware scored on 9 and 10 yard runs and a 61 yard pass play to lead West to victory. The Regents completely dominated Park from the first kick-off, and piled up a total of 330 yards from scrimmage. John Sandner, Boulware, Tom Leslie, and Phil Caravello led the defense.

West 27 Janesville 7

After an early touchdown by Janesville, the Regents came back to soundly beat the Bluebirds. Touchdowns were scored on a 45 yard run by Bill Moore, a 72 yard run by Jim Boulware, a five yard pass to Bill Nimmow, and a three yard pass to Stu Voigt. Mike Cantwell converted on three tries.

West 28 Central 6

Heavily-favored West scored once in each quarter to turn back Central. Jim Kippert passed 33 yards to Dick Pfahler and 17 to John Petterle for touchdowns. Stu Voigt plunged over from the two and Scott Werth raced 48 yards for the other scores. Mike Cantwell clicked on all four conversion attempts.

Grim-faced Regents concentrate on half-time strategy session.

Denny Scholl (44) follows the strong blocking which made the end sweep the Regents bread-and-butter play.

West 30 Kenosha Bradford 0

Scoring in every period, West rolled over Bradford in the Regent's Homecoming game. Stu Voigt scored twice, Jim Kippert and Chuck Segal once each and Mike Cantwell kicked a field goal and three conversions. The Regent defense held Bradford to a single first down for the entire game.

West 13 East 7

The Regents, led by a rock-hard defense and two perfect passes, defeated East for their eighth straight victory. Jim Kippert tossed to Stu Voigt in the closing seconds of the first half and to Dick Pfahler in the third quarter for touchdowns. Dennis Scholl and Chuck Segal spearheaded the Regent touchdown drives.

West 14 Beloit 28

Making the most of pass interceptions and a blocked kick, Beloit shocked West and seriously crippled the Regent's Big Eight championship hopes. The Purple Knights raced to a 28-0 lead before West scored two consolation touchdowns as Dennis Scholl plunged over from the one and again scored on a five yard pass.

West 48 La Follette 12

The Regents piled up 507 yards from scrimmage, to crush out-classed La Follette. Stu Voigt scored three touchdowns, one on a 70 yard run, while Bill Nimmow tallied twice on passes. Scott Werth scored the other two touchdowns on a 28 yard pass from Jerry Martin and a seven yard run.

Mike Cantwell's spectacular leap is of no help to Jim Boulware (43) as he is stopped by two Schurz "Bulldogs". John Sandner (76) and Steve Willet (50) watch the action.

West opened its season with a non-conference triumph over Chicago Schurz, a strong power in Northern Illinois football. Coach Burt Hable's players made a strong bid for the Big Eight crown. Instilled with the mental and physical "hunger" to play, the Regents won their first five conference games, dropped the sixth to Beloit, and rounded out the season with a victory over La Follette. The final standings had West one-half game behind first-place Racine Horlick, and had Horlick not scored a tying touchdown in the last seven seconds of its final game, the Regents would have had a share of first place.

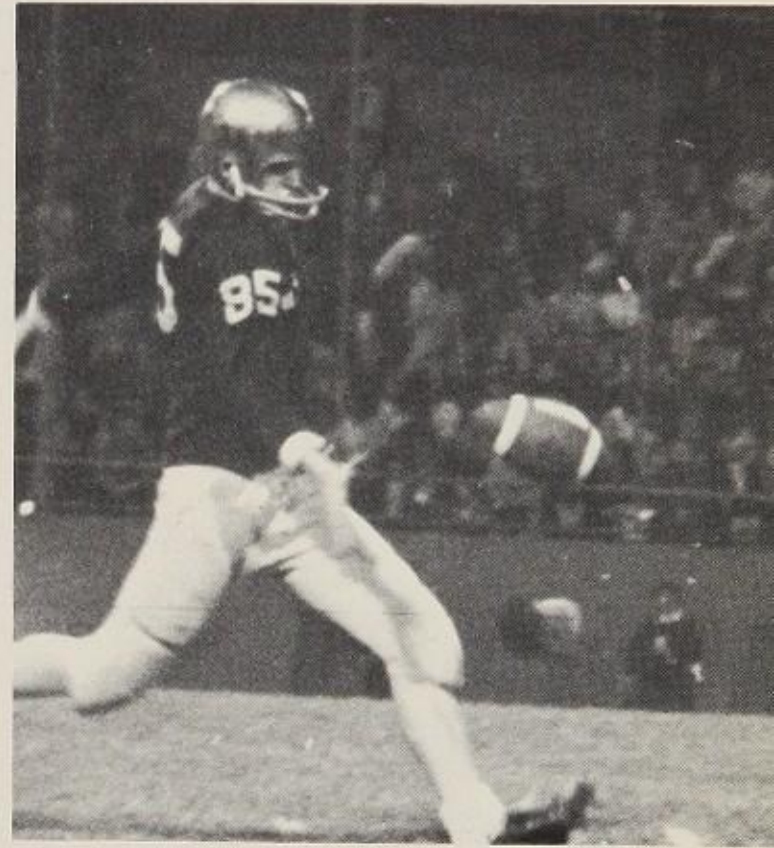

West, the city champion, had four of its members on the all-city team: honorary captain Jim Boulware, guard Dennis Welsch, end Bill Nimmow, and tackle John Sandner. Sandner also made all-conference, first team.

Working together, informally, over the summer, the players became a working unit. During the season the psychology of "father" Hable on his boys and the assistance of coaches Glenn Borland, Jim Bickett, and Mike Brockmeyer paid off. Individual credit should be given, besides to members of the all-city team to: Jim Kippert, Mike Cantwell, Phil Caravello, Dick Pfahler, Stu Voight, and Denny Scholl. Boulware, stand-out in the Park and Janesville games, was sidelined after three games with mononucleosis.

The mainstay of any football team is the line, and West was no exception. The Regent linemen, typified by those shown, were the key to West's success this year.

As Finale to Greatest Season

John Sandner, West's state champion at 180 pounds, awaits the referee's signal to start.

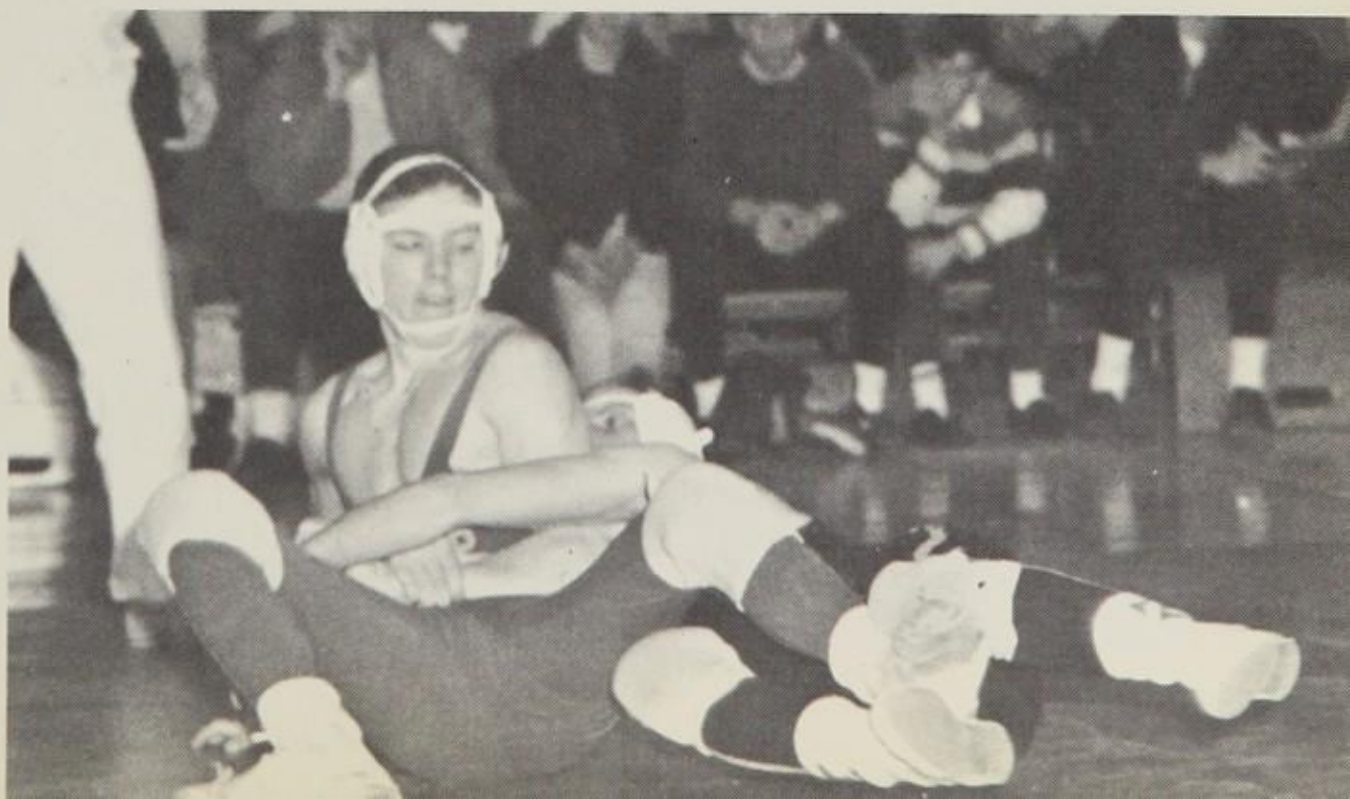

West's wrestling squad, led by strong seniors and coached for the first time by Mr. Mike Brockmeyer, won practically everything it entered. The team ended its season with a 10-1 dual meet record, losing only to Monroe when three of its starters were missing. The Regents won the Madison Invitational, Big Eight, Regional, and Sectional Tournaments on their way to the State Championship.

West sent eleven wrestlers, nine of whom were regional champions, to the Sectionals at Milton Union. Of these eleven, four won first places in sectional competition: Gary Johnson, Mike Tobin, Jim Sanger, and John Sandner.

Coach Brockmeyer, who had "big shoes to fill" after Mr. Hafeman's departure, did a fine job of getting the boys in shape. He was helped along especially by Jim Sanger at 154, who had a 23-2 record, and John Sandner at 180, with a 26-0-1 record. Sanger, wrestling in the weight class of Captain Phil Martin, who was lost to the team this year because of illness, went all the way to the finals at the State Meet, where he lost 1-0 in a battle which could have gone either way. Sandner, who won the State Championship with a 4-2 decision, is West's third individual champion in state meet history. Sandner's victory gave the Regents a one point edge over Berlin and Wittenberg in one of the most evenly balanced state meets in history.

The 1965 West hockey team made history by defeating a powerful Minnesota team, St. Paul Mechanical Arts, in midseason play by an 8—3 margin. With this victory, both the team and Regent spectators noted a marked increase in performance and interest. This increased spirit spurred the pucksters on to an overall 3—5—2 record, including two close overtime games.

As the saying goes, no success comes without hard work. The West hockey team worked long and hard to overcome the improved competition they met this year. When warm spells occurred, the boys practiced in the morning before school. All the games were indoors again this year at the Madison Ice Rink.

Coach Hable's team may notice a deficit next year since the nucleus of the 1965 hockey team was seniors. Senior letter winners include: Don Carpenter, Tom Gilbertson, Bob Gribble, Rich Hoebel, Jim Karpinsky, Bill Lachnit, Tom Lewis, Dave Mussey, Mike Parrott, Bob Pound, and Bill Singer.

Among the other winter sport victories, West's curling team also compiled an impressive record. There were eight rinks formed each with four men, but only two were chosen to represent West in the Bonspiels. These two top rinks, captained by Doug Woody and John Vandeburg, overtook all the other Madison curlers to win the Madison Sectional Bonspiel. Coached by Mr. Bickett, the boys practiced and played games weekly throughout the entire season. These practices paid off as the two rinks took the first event in the Poynette Invitational Bonspiel, the second and third events at the Portage Invitational and also at the Madison Invitational Bonspiel. Doug Woody's rink traveled to the state WIAA meet where it was defeated 7-5 in an extra playdown by state champions, Wau-paca after first defeating them. The members of Woody's rink include Jim Hagedorn, Jim Wilson, Kurt Hambrecht and alternate John Vandeburg.

Having only one meet during the entire season put pressure on West's ski team to get out and do their best. The six man team composed of organizer Rob Wixson, Bob Balsley, John Cardinal, Steve Mikell, Dave Wilson, and Randy Wixson, skied into tenth place out of the seventeen teams which competed in the WIAA state meet at Mount Telemark. The boys all did well in the first few downhill and slalom events, but the second slalom race brought disaster as four of the skiers fell. However, after a year of absence from the slopes West's team did well in representing the southern half of the state in ski competition.

The 1965 West track team will have its work cut out for it in matching the results compiled by its 1964 counterpart. Last year's Regents surprised by capturing the Class A State Title at Monona Grove. Coach Willis Jones' team lost its own West Relays by two and one-half points and the City Meet by two points, but finished strong, taking the Big Eight Conference and Monona Grove Invitational meets along with the State Title. Strong State performance came in Bob Gordon's record-tying 4:20.5 mile victory (the Regent standout had run a 4:18.9 earlier in the season). Strong placings by seniors in the high jump, discus, and pole vault, and a second in the shot-put by sophomore Stu Voigt, gave the Regents a total of fifteen points and a one point edge over Waukesha and Wauwatosa West.

Bob "Tiger" Gordon illustrates one of the most important reasons for his tremendous success—hours of long, hard practice.

1964 Class "A" State Championship

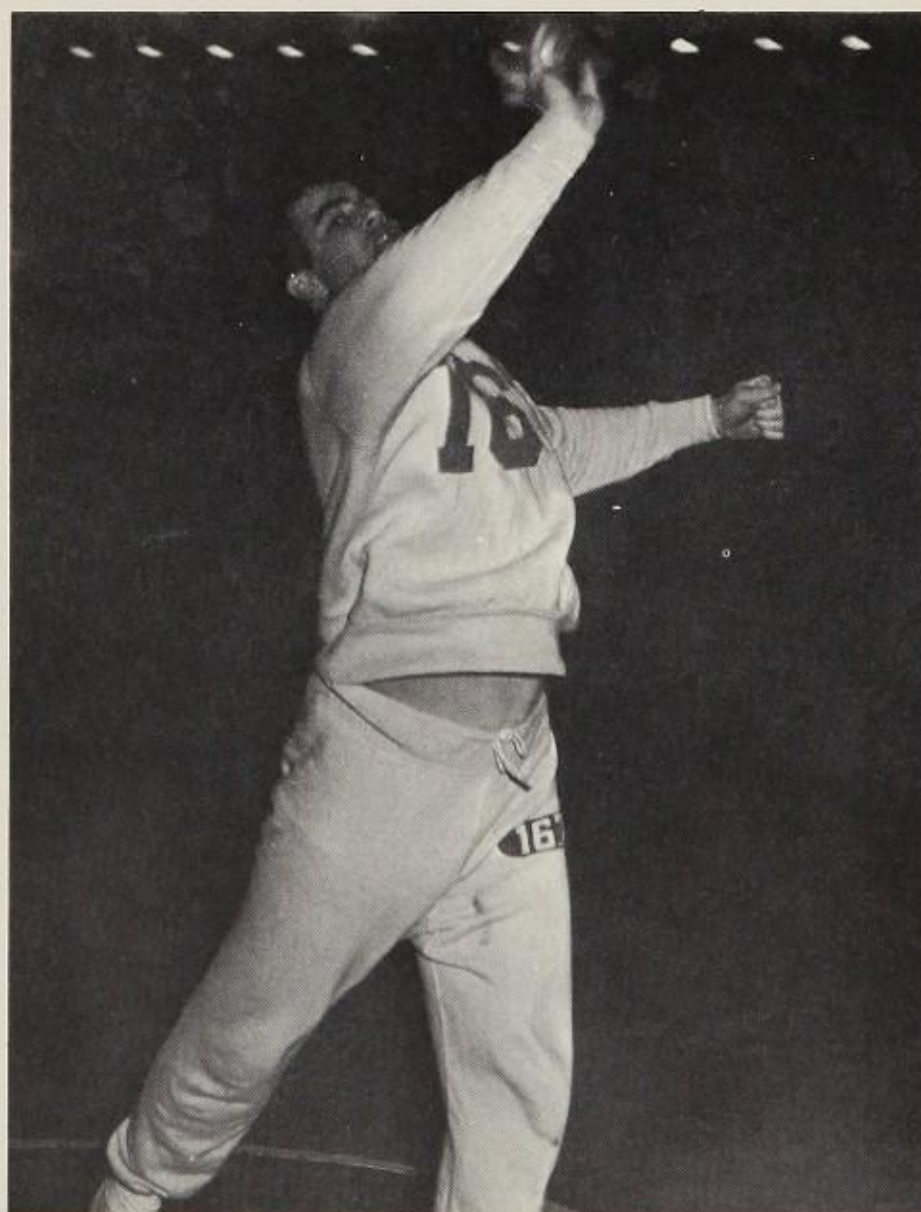

Three West standouts, Denny Scholl, Rich Pritchard, and Rick Boelke, strain as they leave the blocks during a practice session.

The Regents began their 1965 season with a strong performance, winning the Wisconsin Rapids Invitational with 38 points to Lacrosse Central's 33. With several outstanding performances, including an extra-lap victory in the mile by Bob Gordon, the Regents were figured to be co-favorites with East in the West Relays. The expected head-on clash failed to materialize, however, as Nicolet's sprinters led the Knights to a 2½ point victory over the Regents, with the Purgolders third.

Exceptional performances are normal for the Regents. Glenn Dick set a Rapids Invitational record in the broad jump, and Gordon followed up his extra-lap win with a 4:22.1 West Relays record. Stu Voigt tossed the shot 61'6" at Wisconsin Rapids and also won the West Relays with a record-breaking put of 59'6". West's sprint medley relay team (Jim Boulware, Rich Pritchard, Denny Scholl, and Ken Nutter) also won in the Relays, tying the old record of 1:40.8.

The West High winter sports surge was led by the surprising Regent basketball team, which climbed from last year's cellar finish to a share in this year's Big Eight title. Spearheaded by Big Eight scoring leader Glenn Dick, the 1964-65 team compiled a 16-5 overall record and was 11-3 in the Big 8. Dick's 308 points earned him a spot on the All-Big 8 team and the title of Player of the Year.

Although the Regents dropped their first tilt to perennial jinx Beloit, signs of good things to come appeared when West upset highly-touted Waukesha. Big 8 Coach of the Year Jim Stevens' cagers went on to win nine of their next ten conference games, including a pressure victory over arch-rival East to take sole possession of the loop lead. Led by hot-shooting Jerry Martin's 18 points, the Regents trounced the Purgolders, 72-55. After another loss to Beloit and easy victories over La Follette and Central, the Regents went into tournament play. The six senior ironmen—Dick, Martin, All-City choice Dick Pfahler, and strong boardmen Lud Lettau, Phil Kingston, and Bill Nimmow—captured the Portage Regional title, and went into the Platteville Sectional to face unbeaten and top-ranked Monroe. The Regents dropped a heartbreaking 65-64 decision to the Cheesemakers in the last thirteen seconds, but went on to take consolation honors.

After a slow start in which three of the first five games were lost, West's Sophomore basketball team came back to place second to East in the conference. Only one more game was dropped, and the squad finished with a commendable 10-4 record. Highlight of the season was the second encounter with East in which the Regents rallied in the fourth quarter to score 19 points and pull out a 51-47 triumph. West's Sophomores tied the Purgolders for first with a 5-1 record in the Madison city series.

The team had a balanced offense and defense, as they were statistically second in the conference in both categories. Members of the starting squad: Bob Freed, Glen Richgels, Jeff Radder, Tom Seybold, and Dan Siebens, provided scoring punch, and each scored over 100 points in the season. Glen Richgels was high man with 244 points. Strong on the bench were Bob Garrott and Dave Marshall. Members of the Sophomore team should help to fill the big holes in next year's Varsity team.

The Regent swimming team, captained by Jim Kippert and Greg Sample, finished a successful season on February 27 when they placed sixth in the WIAA State Meet. Coach Tom "Kiotee" Hargraves' tankmen, in their third year of competition, compiled a 6-3 dual-meet record. They won the Big Eight title in the conference meet held at the U.W. Natatorium, placed fifth in the tough Bluebird Invitational, and brought home first place trophies from the Platteville Invitational, Southern Wisconsin Relays, City, and State Sectional meets.

Although the "fish" qualified ten individuals and two relay teams for the State Meet at Menominee Falls, all of the Regent scoring was done by five boys. Geoff Rotwein placed fifth in the 50 yard freestyle and Bill Luetke was sixth in the 100, while Pete Bradley took a third in the diving. Bradley's performance was his finest of the year, and he piled up 356.65 points, to break his old school record by more than 64 points. The Freestyle relay quartet of Rotwein, Charlie Segal, Luetke, and Kippert equaled the state record of 1:34.9 set by West last year, but the Regents were edged by state champion Waukesha's entry by two tenths of a second.

The 1964 tennis team completed their season with a respectable 7-3 record. With eight returning lettermen, in addition to three Wisconsin High transfer letter-winners, West's 1965 net team should be one of the stronger squads in the state. Last year's team won the City and Sectional Championships and captured third in the Big Eight. Jon Mueller won the first singles in the Sectionals and also was victorious in the City Meet. Tim Johnson took the second singles in the Sectional, while Bob Eccles duplicated the feat in the Big 8. Bob Willard and Bill Kaether took the second doubles in the Big 8 and the doubles combination of Russ Nelson and Al Rosa swept to the City doubles Championship.

Coach Tom Leverntz feels that this year's team "should do extremely well with its depth and abundance of lettermen." Returning lettermen include Seniors Bob Eccles, Tim Johnson, Jon Mueller, Russ Nelson, Al Rosa, Denny Schacter, and Juniors Bill Kaether and Bob Willard. The Wisconsin High letter-winners are Bruce Kleene, Dick Dubielzig, and Junji Higuchi.

Golfers Face Rebuilding Season

The 1964 golf team won the city title but was a disappointment in both the Big Eight and sectional meets. The city victory marked the twelfth straight year that the Regent golfers have reigned as champion in city competition. In the Big Eight tournament West placed fourth, and in the sectionals, Mike Kelly qualified for the state where he went on to finish eleventh. The dual meet record was 7-0. Last year's outstanding performances were tournament wins over 28 teams at the Janesville Invitational and 10 teams at the Whitefish Bay Invitational.

This season West has only one returning letterman, Mike Plautz, former city junior champion. The top prospects for the team are Seniors Jim Karpinsky and Rob Wixson, Juniors Van Jamison and Jim Lizon, and Sophomore Jeff Radder. Coach Clark Byam is facing a rebuilding year, and the late spring hampered team practice. The team will participate in many of the same dual meets, and the Janesville and Whitefish Bay Invitationals have been scheduled again.

Damp Weather Delays Baseball

Jerry Martin, Phil Kingston, and Coach Paugh discuss Regent strategy for the forthcoming season.

West's 1964 baseball team compiled a 10-4 season record and finished a strong second in the Big Eight race. Central captured the conference honors by beating the Regents 7-2 in the final game of the season.

With this one exception, the Regents dominated city play. Earlier in the season they defeated Central 5-0, and East 3-2 and 2-1. LaFollette proved no match for West as the Regents trounced the Lancers 17-0, 11-0, and 7-4. The out-of-town teams provided tougher competition, and West dropped a 7-0 decision to Racine Horlick and fell before a Beloit onslaught 14-2.

With seven returning lettermen, headed by Jerry Martin, and several excellent sophomore prospects, Coach Paugh's 1965 Regents should again be in the Big 8 race. Martin was on All-Big 8 Conference outfielder in 1964, and took both the city and conference batting crowns with his .472 batting average. Despite a cold, rainy spring, which forced all practices indoors and cancelled all non-conference and several conference games, the Regents won their first game. On April 14 West used the long ball to topple Janesville. West connected on a homer, three triples, and a double in the 6-4 victory.

Girls Participate in Varied Sports

Senior gym class girls square off for a "center bully" to start a field hockey game.

While West High boys attacked sports with high spirits, the girls also came through with fervor. Some participated in volleyball a few nights a week, field hockey attracted others. Bowling was the only activity that attracted a substantial number of girls.

The girls turned out in large numbers on Wednesday afternoons to bowl. In all, about nineteen teams, composed of five girls each, gathered to vie for the bowling honors. It was the "Screwballs", however, who came out on top by winning the most games while still maintaining the highest average for all their games. For single honors, Lynda Parisi held a 150 for her game average.

Members of the "Screwballs", the team that won the bowling honors and the bowlers who scored the highest average are M. Switzky, L. Parisi, J. Dosch, S. Wiedmann, M. Romine. Absent when the picture was taken K. Frank.

Four-Lakes Popularity Grows

FIRST ROW: R. Roberts, C. Marquardt, J. Collins, Coach Holt, M. Marvin. SECOND ROW: P. Schnicke, G. Miller, L. Roth, B. Banadyga, R. Clack, T. Gilbertson, B. Smith, D. The West four-lakers ended their season with the highlight; a victory over cross-town rival, East. This win gave the team a final record of 5-0. Most of the boys in this year's squad have been playing together since they were sophomores, and in their junior year they finished second in the league to the West seniors. Coach Doug Holt drilled the boys diligently every night after school, and the boys went on to win

every Saturday morning. This year's squad had an outstanding offense and defense, both of which contributed to the victorious season. While the defense was allowing their opponents only two touchdowns the entire year, quarterback Mike Marvin connected with end Bob Smith to account for most of the Regen' touchdowns.

The spirit of tournament play acted as incentive to one of West's many four-lakes teams as they won three out of four games, gaining second place in the city. Captained by Bob Eccles, the team beat three West teams, but was beaten in the finals by East. The Royals, as they were called, ended the regular season play with a 6-4 record, but led by high scorers Bill Meythaler and Al Rosa they finished strong in tournament play. The four-lakers only practiced once a week and played their games Saturday mornings at various high school gyms. The entire four-lakes program is made up of three divisions, each divided into three leagues with six teams per league.

Members of West's outstanding 4-Lakes Basketball team are: A. Rosa, B. Meythaler, N. Woolsey, S. Topp, team mascot G. Beytein and (SEATED) S. Holmgren, and B. Eccles.

This year the gymnastics "squad" grew in size so that it could officially be called a team, for this year West had two gymnasts to represent it at the WIAA State Meet. Last year as a junior, Pete Bradley made up a one man team and brought home second place in the state meet. This year he was joined by Scott Bauer and together they placed eighth in the state. Bauer won the trampoline event, but this particular event does not receive points in the competition since all schools cannot participate, so West chalked-up an extra victory. Bradley, who could only enter three events, was the best all-around, first on the horizontal bars, and second on the parallel bars.

Pete Bradley warms-up with a few floor exercises before moving on to his specialties—the horizontal and parallel bars.

Gymnastics Squad Expands to Two

Three West athletes who were given "most improved" awards, Mike McInnis (wrestling), Chuck Segal (football) and Bob Gordon (cross country), gather in front of some of the trophies they and their teammates won.

ACTIVITIES

Twirp Twitches with the Playboys

Zebras danced the "Gorilla" and tigers "monkeyed" at West's zaniest of zany danced—Twirp Twirl. The theme of the dance, "Yipes, Stripes" was the cause of incredulous costumes. On this March 5th eve, terminating West's annual Twirp Season, striped cardboard animals stalked the gym walls while assorted jailbirds, referees, and even an American flag gyrated on the floor below.

Contrary to established rules of the animal kingdom, the Twirp Season was the time when—you guessed it—the girls did the asking. But that was only the beginning. Once girls had asked the boys out, they were expected to open all doors, help the boys with their coats, provide transportation on dates, pay all expenses . . . the list was almost interminable. They even had to carry their beaus' books to classes! Apparently, however, this was a small price to pay for the privilege of asking out the boys of their choice, for the Twirp Dance was one of the most popular dances of the school year. Munching on animal crackers and dancing to the rhythm of the Playboys, and combo from Milwaukee, stripes of all sizes and colors spent an enjoyable evening at this unique event.

Students Display Talents to Regents

The A.F.S. Talent Show of 1965 was a tremendous success from the opening sounds of the "Dick Six" to the final swell of audience participation in "When A.F.S. Goes Marching In". The variety of talented acts, spiced with emcee Jim McDonald's "jokes", provided an entertaining evening.

Fourteen acts included modern dance, piano solos, folk singing, rock and roll, "Gleebs", and the "Crew Capers". From these the talent of Mike Wiltgen, Jane Dymond, "The Mud Stompers" and the "Dick Six" were chosen to represent West in the All City A.F.S. Talent Show April 9.

The program, a financial success, contributed $550 to A.F.S. and gave West's A.F.S.er's, Aberra Batcha, Ken Blaedel, Russ Nelson and Wilhelm Rittholer some deserved attention.

Jim Kippert, with the "Dick Six", starts the show with "The Crusher."

Dave Westley, Mark Barbash, Steve Kerst and Albee Pfahler stomp out Blue Mountain tunes.

Educational Experiences Vary

Sixth hour finds many students in the library doing research. In the background are the new study carrolls which offer students needed privacy.

Two fourth year French students, Barb Skowlund, and Molly Shannon use the facilities of the Language Lab to practice their pronunciation.

"Henry Higgins, Henry ..." Elisa (Ann Alexander), coaxed by Henry Higgins (Tom Morrissey), the housekeeper (Carol Olsen) and Col. Pickering (Joel Rubin), tries to pronounce the English language properly by repeating the name of her tutor. If the candle she is holding goes out, she will have been successful. "Pygmalion" was one of the many plays put on by the senior speech classes.

Off the Beaten Track . . .

Queen Sue Roderick was escorted by Bob Gordon. Her attendants were Mary Stelly, escorted by Rich Pritchard, and June Wolf, escorted by Brad McDowell. Members of the junior court were Matthew Peacock, Joy Parker, Lynn Osness and Roger Lyngas.

Queen Sue

The 1965 West Relays were held at the University of Wisconsin Memorial Building on Saturday, April 17. Queen Sue Roderick and her attendants, Mary Stelly and Jane Wolf, presided over the event. They were responsible for congratulating the winners and presenting trophies to the winning schools. After the meet, the track dance, "Off The Beaten Track" was held in the Junior High Gym, with music by the Marauders.

The Course of True Love

After six weeks of preparation by stage crew, director, actors, and actresses, "A Midsummer's Night Dream," by William Shakespeare, was presented March 26 and 27. It was directed by Mr. Thomas Tews who was assisted by Armine Gulesserian and Art Malcolm.

The play begins in the court of Athens with Theseus, the Duke of Athens (Dave Westley), Hippolyta (Veronica Jacob) and the court jester, Philostrate (Rod Clark). Hermia enters (Suzy Stanley) and is presented to the Duke by her father Egeus (Tim Lewis). Hermia is in love with Lysander (Steve Leeper) but has been forbidden by her father to marry him. Instead Egeus wants his daughter to marry Demetrius (Don Snowden) and gives Hermia four days to decide between death and marriage to Demetrius. Lysander, however, plans their escape from Athens to a place in the forest beyond the reach of Athenian law. Hermia confides their plans to her friend, Helena (Marcia Gehring), who loves Demetrius. Hoping for some favor from Demetrius, Helena tells him of the lovers' plan. Oberon (Gregg Kreutz) and Titania, Queen of the Fairies (Linda Davis) are quarreling in another part of the forest over a young Indian boy whom Titania has in her possession. Oberon, determined to take the lad from Titania, sends Puck, his mischief-maker (Jim Underkofler) to seek revenge with a magical love potion.

Upon awakening from her sleep, Titania falls in love with the first creature she sees, the transformed Bottom (Jim Boulware). Oberon asks Puck to also anoint Demetrius' eyes so that he might love Helena. However, Puck mistakes Lysander for Demetrius, and in doing so sends the four lovers into confusion. Finally, everything is set straight by Oberon who has succeeded in persuading Titania to give up the changeling boy. The two couples (Helena and Demetrius, Hermia and Lysander) are married and join in Theseus' and Hippolyta's wedding day celebrations—a play presented by Peter Quince (Russ Leverentz) and his rustic friends (Charles Jordan, Steve Clark, Dave Minkoff, Tom Christenson, Jim Boulware). Action by the fairies (Lee Fishel, Missie Freed, Nancy Olmstead and Nancy Ingersoll) added to the midsummer's night enchantment of the forest.

Hermia (Suzy Stanley) confides in Helena (Marcia Gehring) her plans to elope with Lysander.

Queen Titania (Linda Davis) argues with King Oberon (Greg Kretz) over the possession of an Indian boy.

Never Did Run Smooth

Puck (Jim Underkoffer) plans some mischief as he peers intently over Peter Quince's (Russ Leverentz) shoulder.

Stage Crew "takes a break" during a work session.

The King of the Fairies, Oberon (Gregg Kreutz) cautiously applies a love potion to the eyelids of the sleeping Fairy Queen, Titania (Linda Davies).

As the Senior Year Draws to a Close . . .

One of the many tasks for seniors is ordering announcements. Stephen Holmgren, Russell Nelson, Maureen Rooney, Linda Wirth and Tom Klingele make their selections.

John Mueller, chairman of measuring caps and gowns, takes Ginny Steeper's head size while Paul Tews, committee member, records the measurement. The senior class chose maze and blue for tassels and cords.

Class Night committee chairmen are Peter Hamlin (orchestral arrangement), John Sims (composer), Tim Fishel (head director), Tim Lewis (vocal arranger), Wilhem Ritthaler (orchestral arrangement), Paul Borsuk (scripts) and Dave Clark (conductor).

Campaigns for Favorite Candidates

Speaker Steve Holmgren holds the attention of Mark Paul, Clarke Caywood, Paul Borsuk, Sue Vilhauer, and Bob Eccles.

Clarke Caywood voices his opinions while Steve Holmgren and John Sims listen attentively.

On November 2, 1964, one day before elections were to take place, West High students were given the opportunity to vote for their candidates at national, state, and local levels. The mock election, sponsored by Student Senate, reflected national and state trends in predicting Johnson's 2-1 margin and Knowles' narrow victory.

The voting ended a two week campaign highlighted by a program of speakers in the gym. Student speakers spoke on behalf of the major candidates in the presidential, gubernatorial, and senatorial races. The party chairmen were Catey Doyle, Democratic, and Mark Paul, Republican.

The applauding audience demonstrates the enthusiasm students showed toward the mock elections.

West's Homecoming and Midwinter

Queen Susan

Queen Karen

Susan Derse, West's royal choice for 1964 Homecoming Queen, held a fairy-tale reign over "Pumpkin Hollow" under a star filled sky amidst corn shocks and pumpkins. Jim Kippert escorted her throughout the weekend, from her coronation at the Homecoming Aud to the presentation of the coal bucket to the senior class for their winning float "Bury Bradford" West's victory over Kenosha provided exuberance of spirit for this traditional dance on October 10, 1964.

Queen Susan and her court, Carol Olsen and Marcia Welsh with their escorts, Jim Kippert, Bill Nimmow and John Sandner.

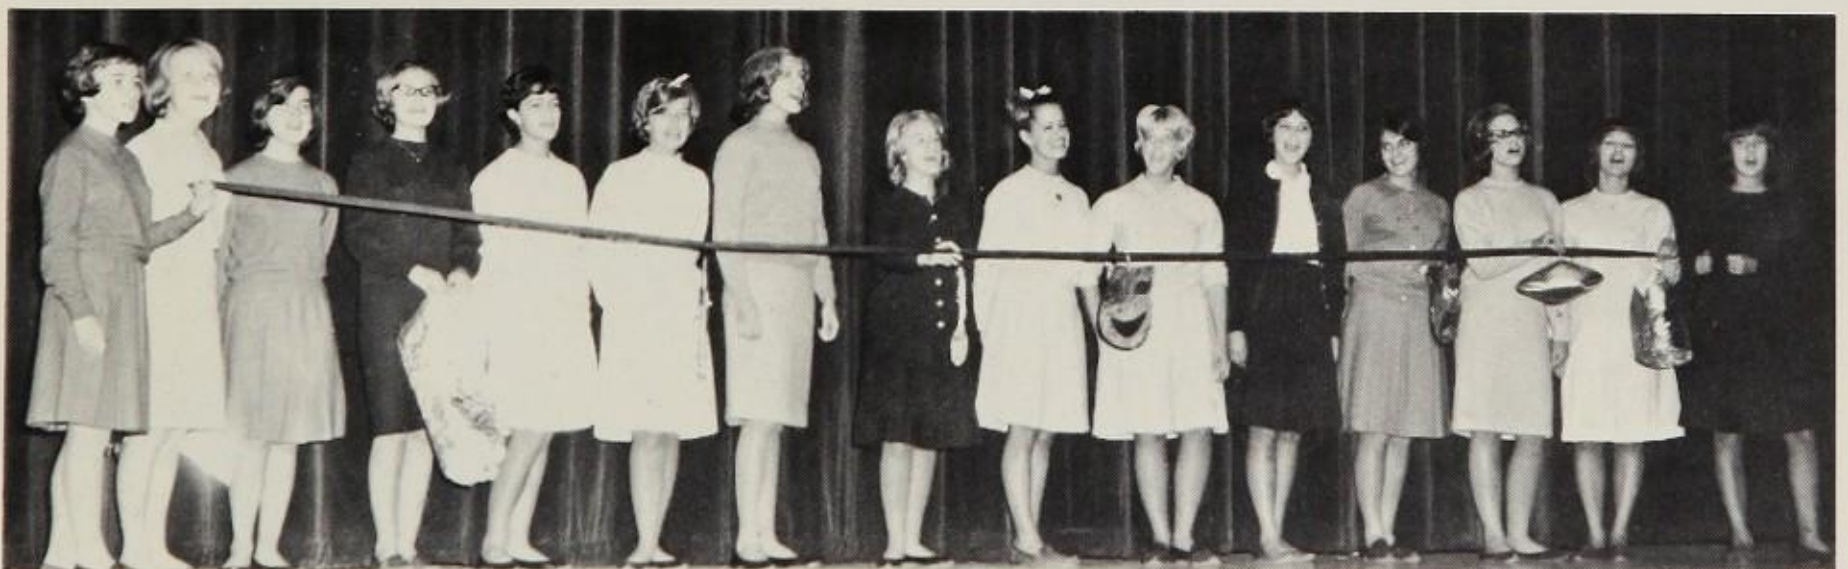

Royalty Reign

Assisted by Barb Milesky and Nancy Allin, Queen Karen reigned over Chamonix. Their escorts were Phil Martin, Greg Sample and Glenn Dick.

Outside the ski lodge, cold winds blew, but Queen Karen Kimball reigned amidst warm hearts and a cosy fireplace. Tow tickets allowed us to enter Chamonix, the imitation French ski resort, to dance to the tunes of Benny Ehr and his orchestra. Karen's reign over Midwinter began on Friday with her coronation and ended at midnight on Saturday, January 23.

Spirited Pep Club members add the shoe, symbolizing West's track team, to the traditional charm bracelet. Their presence completed the 1964 Homecoming Aud program.

A Glimpse Behind the Scenes

Mr. Rafoth conducts a Pep Band practice session.

Few people outside of the actual participants realize the amount of work necessary to prepare for the major activities at West. Only long hours of practice make athletic teams, band, orchestra, and choir the successes they are. Often, hours of strenuous work late into the night are needed to complete plans for the major dances and plays (ask anyone on Social Committee or Stage Crew). Thus we dedicate this page to those often unappreciated, who are the backbone of events at West.

Stage Manager Jim Fluck makes last minute checks on equipment and instructions.

Social Committee members working on decorations for Midwinter are Jean LaValley, Mary Westing, Sue Barth, Mary Norsetter, Ann Worley, Pat Eckhart, Lynne Myers, Rob Wixson, chairman Susie Kaeser, and Don Snowden.

Choir Highlights Christmas Season

The spirit of the Christmas season prevailed over West during the week before vacation. W.S.C. contributed much to this by festively decorating a Christmas tree in the library and in front of the office, and by adorning classroom doors with angels. But the climax of Christmas is always the auditorium program. This year the Choir's traditional candle-lit processional led them on stage before a gigantic wreath. The Girl's Chorus sang below. Also adding their voices to the Thursday night and Friday afternoon performances were the Girl's and Boys' Ensembles.

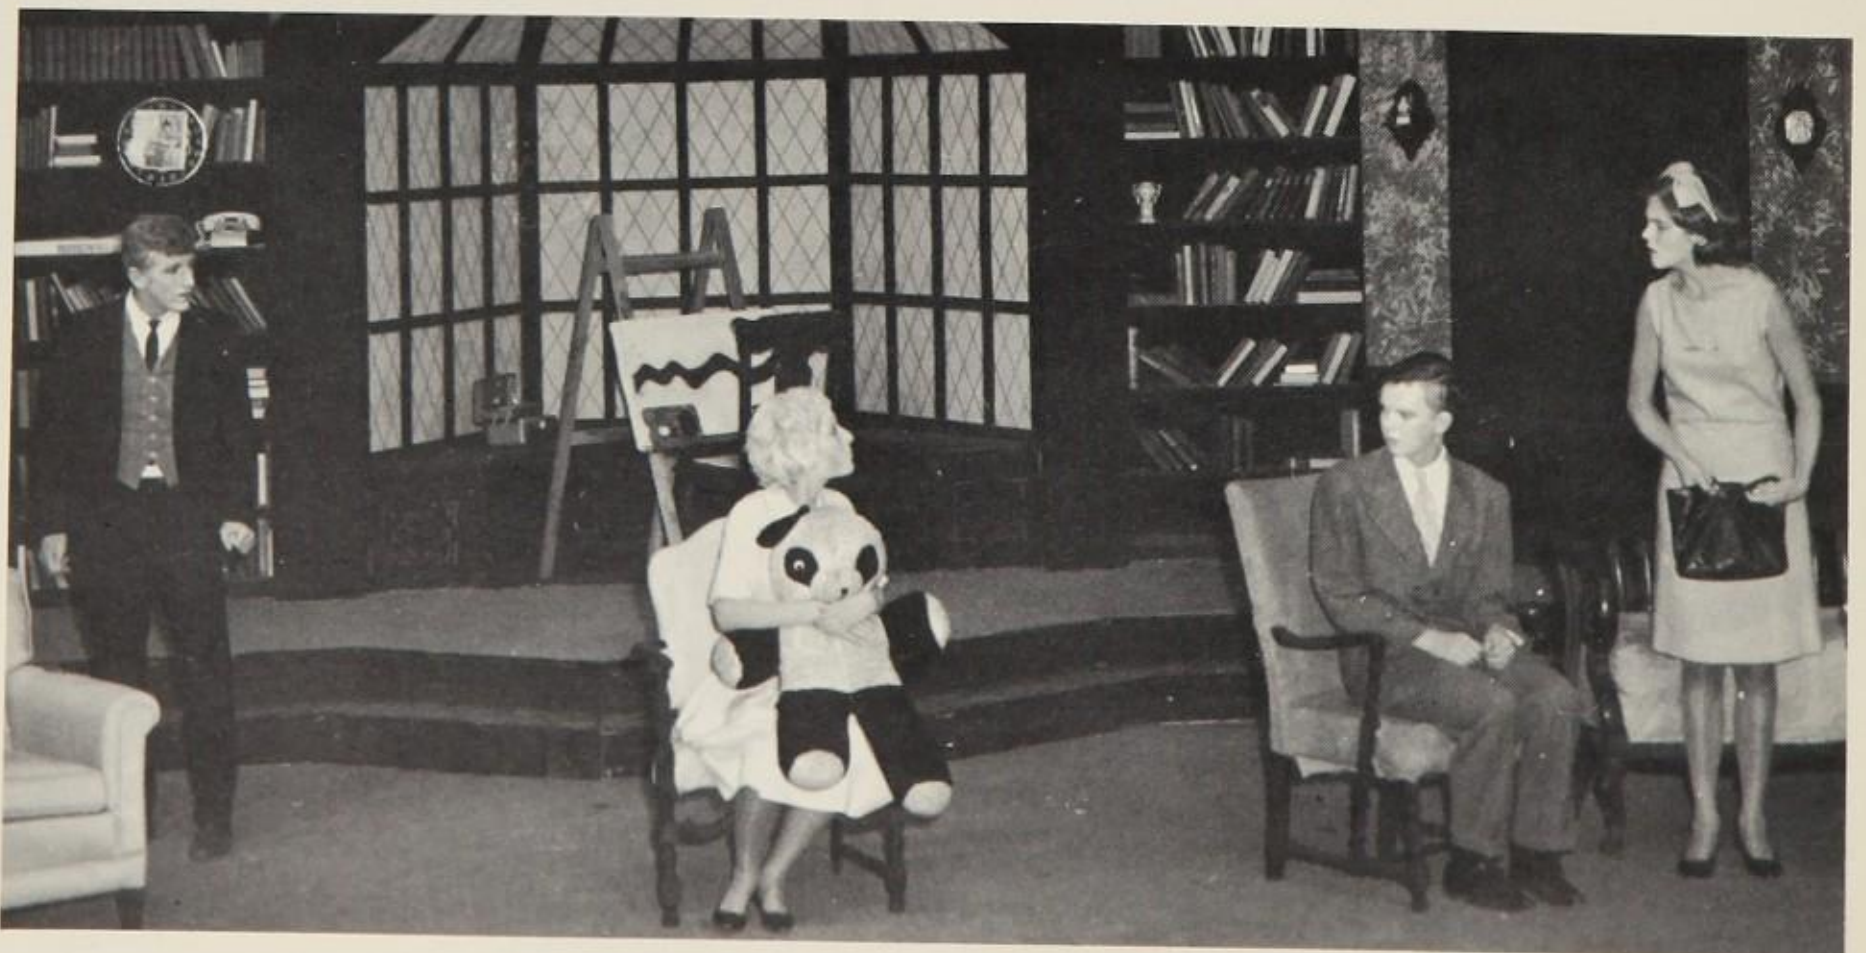

"It's amazing what standing above people does. Do you know, I feel smarter than anybody in the whole world," comments Fairy (Jill Eikenberry).

"—To Look with Understanding

"Is there a car out front, Fairy?" This was the beginning of The Curious Savage presented by the senior speech classes November 20 and 21. In the middle of October Mr. Thomas Tews began work with the stage crew and cast. Five weeks of rehearsal went into the preparation of the production which was presented to an eager audience of students, parents, and faculty.

As the play begins Mrs. Savage (Freya Weinstein), who has been left ten million dollars in negotiable bonds by her husband, is committed to a sanatorium by her greedy children (Milt McMillen, Becky Thomas, Tim Fischel). Mrs. Savage had begun a fund which would help the hopes and dreams of others to be realized, but her children wanted this money for themselves.

on the Fools of Good Heart"

Mrs. Savage (Freya Winestein) introduces several members of the Cloisters (Greg Kreutz, Diane Kreft, Jim McDonald) to a newspaper.

The Cloisters is filled with social misfits living in their own fantasy filled world (Jill Eikenberry, Diane Kreft, Greg Kreutz, Jim McDonald). The distracted children are lead on a merry chase which ends in disaster to each. The friends of Mrs. Savage, believing in the justice of her cause, finally step in to obstruct her selfish children. Mrs. Savage is persuaded by her doctor and nurse (Bob Parsons, Mary Ehrensberger) to leave the Cloisters and continue her fund. Mrs. Savage departs, leaving behind the "egg shell" world of illusions and dreams. As the curtain comes down we are left with the thought that kindness and affection are not entirely lost to a world motivated by greed and dishonesty.

"Don't cry, Mrs. Paddy. I'm sure you hate tears too." Mrs. Savage (Freya Weinstein) and the doctor (Bob Parsons) try to calm Mrs. Paddy (Marsha Swenson).

Sophomores Learn Ways of West

A sophomore homeroom works diligently filling out their programs which will be computed by IBM.

Each year the sophomores must learn to adjust to West. This year, along with the rest of the student body, they were introduced to the new IBM grading processes, as well as a number of other innovations. The sophomore year, more than any other high school year, is one of meeting new people. "Fireside Fantasy" provided the first social opportunity to make these new friends.

December 11 marked the date of the Sophomore Class Party, where "Fireside Fantasy" proved to be a great success. Sophomores show characteristic enthusiasm as they dance the latest steps.

Enthusiasm Sparks West Victories

Lively cheerleaders—Mary Cantwell, Shorty Motelet, Penny Perrass, and Lynn Reed—spur the team to victory over Chicago Schurz.

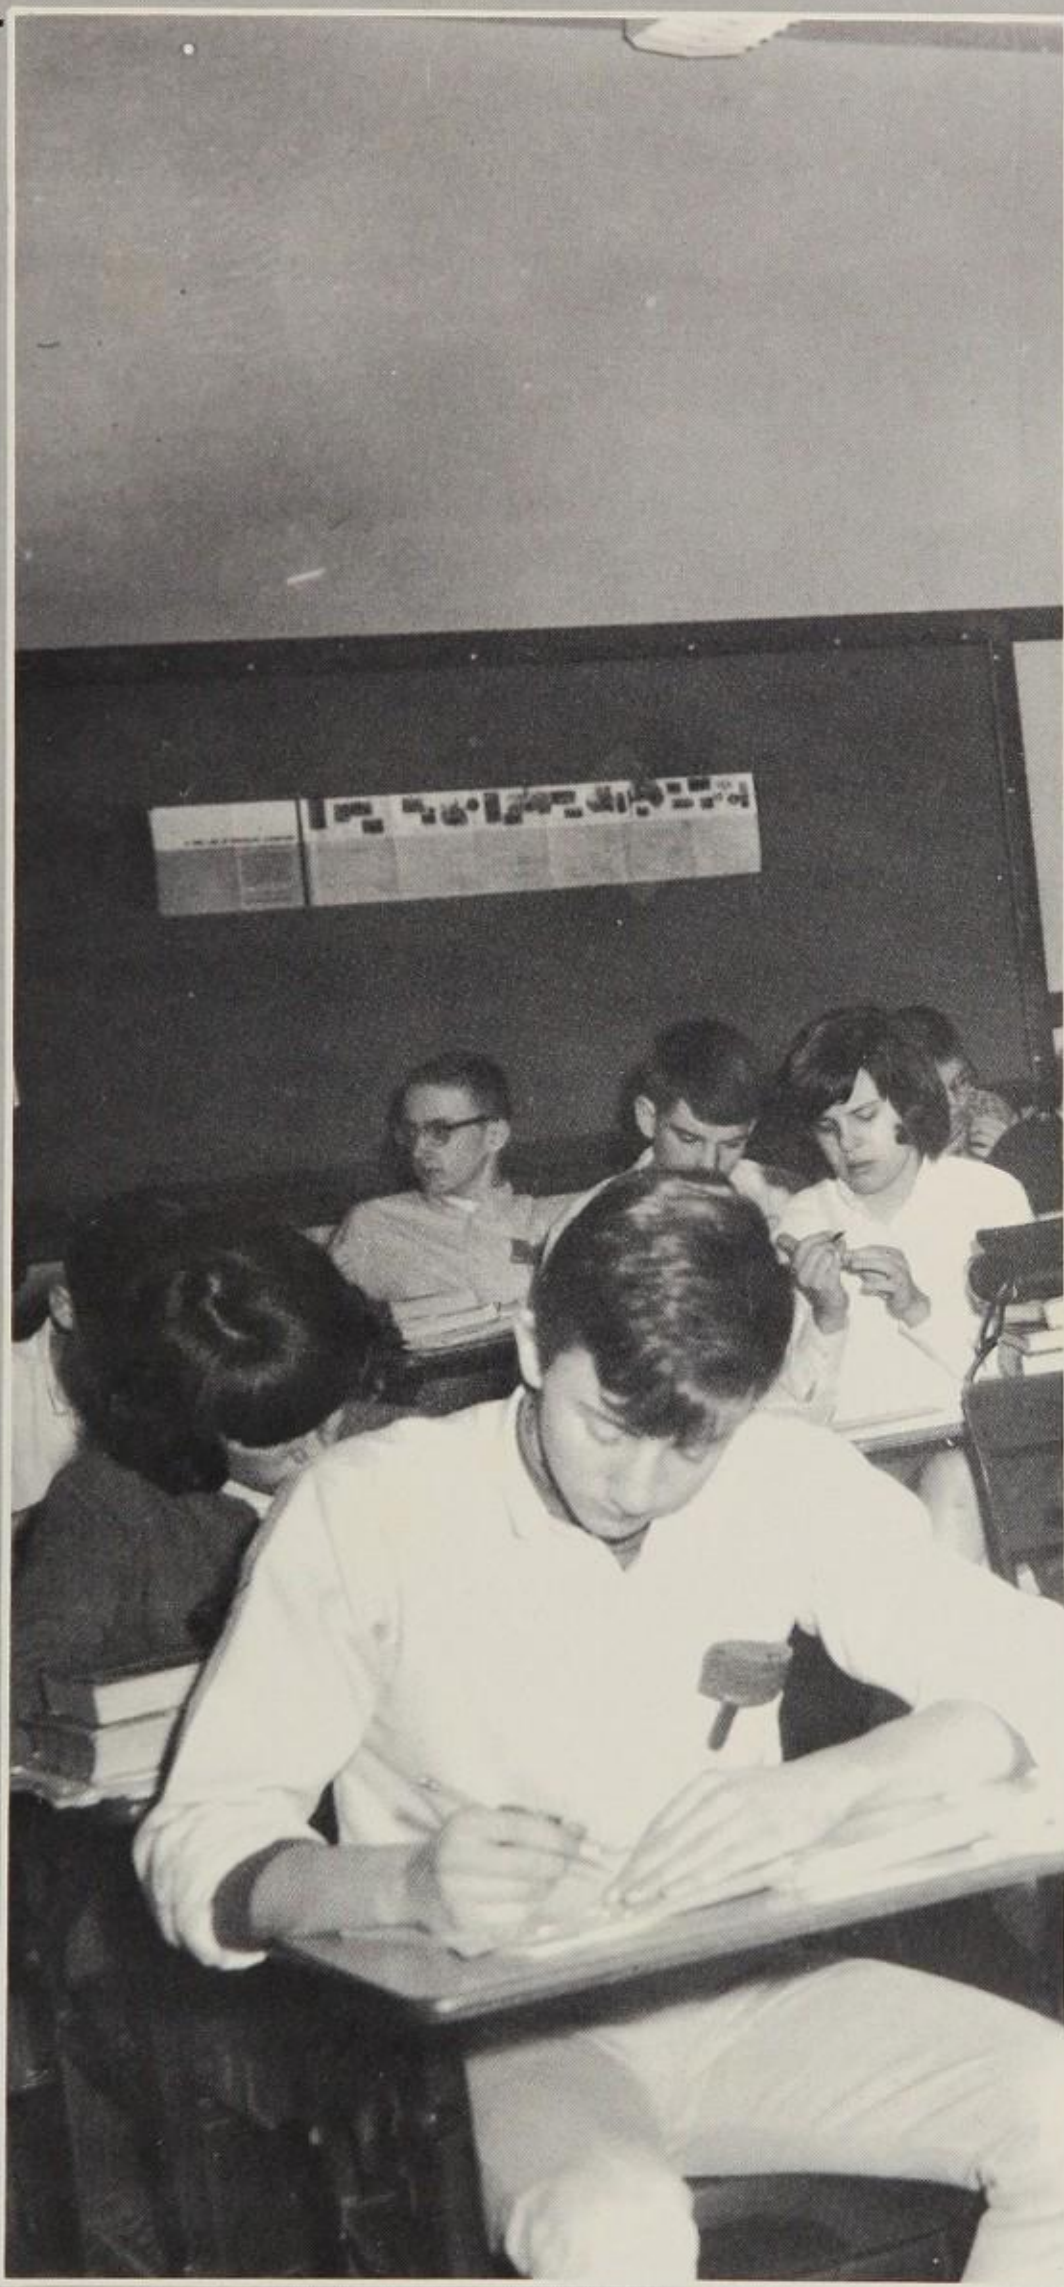

Indolence we won't condone—at least not with the exuberance and enthusiasm of cheerleaders and crowds like these! We cheered and shouted through all the ups and downs—nothing could destroy our spirit.

Pep Aud before the East-West game builds excitement and high spirits.

C L A S S E S

Early last fall the Class of 1966 began a successful year by electing its ambitious class officers—Jim Sanger (President), Dave Kuntz (Vice-President), and Jean LaValley (Secretary). Building a Homecoming float which won the prized coal bucket was indicative of the enthusiasm and drive of the entire class. Another big event for the class was the Junior Class Party. In short the Juniors spent a very profitable year preparing for the future—especially that long awaited position of becoming Seniors and presiding over all West High affairs.

For the class of 1967 the first weeks at West were hectic ones. In spite of the confusion, they did elect competent class officers—Craig Richter, Pres.; Sam Schwartz, V. Pres.; Lissa Laird, Sec.; and Mr. Holt, advisor. The Homecoming float was the first class project, and they tackled it with characteristic pep. "Fire-side Fantasy", the Sophomore Class Party, was another major event for the Sophomores.

Sophomore Class Officers: Mr. Holt, advisor; Sam Schwartz, V. Pres.; Craig Richter, Pres.; and Lissa Laird, Secretary; organized all Sophomore events.

ANCHOR

MADISON'S 120 MILLION DOLLAR MUTUAL SAVINGS ASSOCIATION

46 YEARS OF UNINTERRUPTED SERVICE

When it comes to saving money think of Anchor. At Anchor you have the security of an insured savings & loan association which has built up substantial reserves (10.06%) over many years of service while paying a consistently high rate of earnings (currently 4%). Anchor has made invaluable contributions to the forward growth and development of this community, offering its savings members the greatest security possible, as well as insurance up to $10,000.00 by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation of Washington D.C., a Federal government agency.

Yes, indeed, your money is safe, insured safe, at the Anchor Savings and Loan Association. And do you know how nice it is to have savings when needed? It's just loads of fun having and building security once you get that saving habit. It's your future now — do make the most of it.

The Very Best of Success, and our Wish —

May Your Dreams Come True!

Dave,
You're lucky
you're a gun, you are graduating. In other words, you don't know how to have fun this summer and still to your job. In Robert

Dave,
Econ. class was a blast
I hope to see you
this summer.
Tunji

Dave,
Charlie's
is an improvement over Crook.

Kaiser

Dave, it's fun
this year lots of fun
Take it easy in art class someday the bunny let maybe you stop! Without luck -
But, Gus

Dave,
It's been nice knowing you in art class. Thanks so much for the use of your bander - what would
I have done without it (and it all by myself. It's in a hospital)
Best of luck in all you do.
